TOURISM FIJI SUCCESSFULLY HOSTS JAPAN ROADSHOW FOR 2020

Leading the Fiji delegation in Japan last week was Tourism Fiji's Regional Manager for Asia, Ms Kathy Koyamaibole who said it was a great opportunity to strengthen and educate Japan's travel trade partners about the destination's offerings.

"Since the launch of direct flights from Narita, we've invested significantly into establishing strategic partnerships with our Travel Trade Partners to not only drive visitor arrivals to Fiji, but also yield. This roadshow is key in establishing and strengthening partnerships with our strategic partners, while also aligning with Japan's core contracting periods.

Fiji's industry partners attested to the value of business derived from the roadshow and are enthusiastic in fulfilling this roadshow during famils that will showcase their products while the agents are in Fiji" explains Ms Koyamaibole.

Partners in attendance included: Fiji Airways, Ahura Resorts (Malolo Island Resort and Likuliku Lagoon Resort), Hilton Fiji Beach Resort & Spa (and Double Tree Fiji, Sonaisali Island), Mana Island Resort & Spa Fiji, Marriott International Fiji (Sheraton Fiji Resort, Denarau Island, Sheraton Fiji Resort, Tokoriki Island, Sheraton Denarau Villas, The Westin Fiji Resort & Spa and Fiji Marriott Resort, Momi Bay), Matamanoa Island Resort Fiji, The Naviti Resort (and Warwick Fiji Resort & Spa), Outrigger Fiji Beach Resort, Castaway Island Fiji, The Pearl Resort, Pehicle Tours (Fiji) PTE Ltd, Rosie Holidays, Sofitel Fiji Resort & Spa, South Pacific Oceania (SPO) and Yasawa Island Resort & Spa.

FIJI AIRWAYS & TOURISM FIJI PARTNER TO BRING THE BULANAIRES ONBOARD

Fiji Airways, Fiji's National Airline, has partnered with Tourism Fiji for the next phase of its Bulanaire campaign, bringing it to life inflight. Travellers can experience the famed Fijian hospitality of the cabin crew and learn about the happiest parts of Fiji via the Bulanaires.

Throughout the months of March and April travellers onboard Fiji Airways flights will be able to engage with the Bulanaires through the inflight entertainment system and the airline's award-winning magazine, FIJITIME.

Of the partnership, Fiji Airways Executive General Manager Corporate Affairs Ms. Shaenaz Voss said, "Fiji Airways is thrilled to have partnered with Tourism Fiji, as the national carrier we are proud to welcome the Bulanaires on board. For our guests, the holiday starts the moment they step onboard the aircraft, with the help of our world famous cabin crew and state of the art fleet, passengers are more than just a seat number

Fiji Airways is pleased to announce that as of 5th March, 2020, the economy class baggage allowance for all FJ international routes will be 30kg. Effective for tickets issued on/after 05 March, 20 (Tickets issued on/before 04 March 20, will be honored at the baggage allowance applicable at time of ticketing) For More Information but a part of the extended family".

"Bulanaires is all about celebrating Fiji's strongest assets, its culture and happiness. Our cabin crew are renowned for their hospitality so it was only natural that we brought elements of Bulanaires to the inflight experience to tie it all together."

The Fiji Airways cabin crew were awarded "Best Airline Staff in Australia Pacific" at the 2019 Skytrax awards, a reflection of how the airline takes famous Fijian hospitality around the world.

Tourism Fiji and its partners will launch the campaign in March, where travellers will be able to enjoy complimentary add-ons at many resorts and hotels, with activities such as extended happy hours and complimentary massages.

Tourism Fiji Chief Executive Officer, Mr Matthew Stoeckel said, "The Bulanaires campaign celebrates people rich in happiness and our 2020 program celebrates and recognizes the hard-working heroes of our tourism industry – our frontliners. We're pleased to partner with Fiji Airways to celebrate our Bulanaires and help us to promote Fiji as the place where happiness finds you."

March is prime time to visit Fiji, often hailed as the happiest place on earth, with great weather and golden sunsets. Australian travellers can experience the famous Fijian hospitality quite easily with the island paradise being just a short three or four hour flight from major airports.
